

GREEN KERNEL PISTACHIO

GREEN KERNEL PISTACHIO

The Green kernel pistachio has particular consumption for confectionary purposes having same quality of Kernel Pistachio, but with higher value than the other types. This type of pistachio kernel is normally produced through harvesting pistachios when they are still raw (Kaal). These types of pistachio kernels are normally more expensive than other type of pistachios, due to costly process. As the color of kernels are greener the price of pistachios kernels is higher too. Iranian Green Kernels are known as luxury food ingredient, which are used in various industries such as: pastries, chocolate, ice cream, sausages and ham.
